

Library of the Lion

Muesello:

Enclosed is the paperwork you were promised. Use this opportunity wisely, and remember to gather the information I need above all else. Bring me the details of the Lines of Succession; leave out no part of this scroll, taking particular care to copy the exception rules.

Find the hidden entrance to the archive by studying honor, courage, and glory.

The bearers of this document are hereby granted entrance to the Kitharodian Academy library's rare books collection. This access shall be for no more than two hours and only for so long as all rules and guidelines are strictly adhered to.
