

This warrant grants the recognised bearer and company the authority to act as in the interest of good order and keep the lady commander's laws within the territories protected by Fort Dneivable.

Whilst the personal right to defend ones person is respected and defended by the Hellknight order of the pike, violence without authority is a criminal act and will not be tolerated.

The authority granted by this warrant covers the use of coercion and both lethal and non-lethal force when dealing with bandits or unlawful activity. This authority does not allow for violence to be carries out upon lawful folk or vandalism of their properties, including lawfully acquired slaves.

This authority is granted under the conditions that the recognised bearer of the warrant will take any and all measures to cooperate with the Hellknight order of the Pike under the lady commander as well as donation of thirty percent of goods confiscated under the authority of this warrant.

Lady Commander Audara Drovust
of the order of the pike
Fort Dneivable

